

US Army Corps
of Engineers®

International Operations Overview

Bill Sargent
Chief, International Operations

US Army Corps
of Engineers®

International Operations Focus

- Expeditionary mindset
- Support DoD military combat and expeditionary operations with qualified and responsive ordnance support
- Ordnance support in the sustainment of Army ranges and training areas worldwide
- Land mine clearance

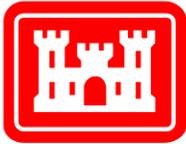

Expeditionary Mindset

US Army Corps
of Engineers®

- Worldwide deployment with potential short lead time
- Logistics
 - Logistics support capability to carry yourself
 - DoD may supply food, fuel, demo material and some construction material
- Security
 - Be prepared to provide all security requirements

US Army Corps
of Engineers®

Support to DoD Military Operations

- Iraq
 - Destruction of recovered munitions
 - Code H unserviceable munitions
 - Depot operations
- Afghanistan
 - Ordnance and mine clearance
- Africa
 - Ordnance and mine clearance
 - Training
- Central/South America
 - Ordnance and mine clearance

Support for Army Ranges and Training

US Army Corps
of Engineers®

- ❑ Countries where there are potential Army ranges to be built. These will/may require ordnance support
 - Korea
 - Okinawa
 - Oman
 - Germany
 - Kuwait
 - Romania

US Army Corps
of Engineers®

Land Mine Clearance

-
- ❑ Areas identified for potential mine clearance support.
 - Korea
 - Africa
 - Southeast Asia
 - Iraq
 - Afghanistan