Huntsville Center issues $29 million contract for combat readiness support team services

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. – The U.S. Army Engineering and Support Center, Huntsville, on June 2 awarded a multiple award task order contract worth up to $29.1 million to four businesses to perform Combat Readiness Support Team Services. The purpose of these contracts is to support planning for military installations, ranges, training areas, facilities, lands, utilities and related issues.

The four businesses are: Avila Government Services in Alexandria, Va.; Colorado Datascape in Colorado Springs, Colo.; John Gallup & Associates in San Diego, Calif.; and RexRoad APG in Colorado Springs, Colo. The contracts will replace the Engineering and Support Center, Huntsville's Planning Services contracts.

The awards are for one base-year with four option years (total of five years). The total programmatic contract value is $29.1 million dollars.

All four companies are small businesses. The Center received a total of five proposals.

Projects may include range development plans, training investment strategies, theater training strategies, Summary Development plans, utilities support studies, Installation Compatibility Use Zone studies, land use studies and Force Modernization/Force Integration studies.
