Carol Youkey selected as U.S. Army Corps of Engineers special assistant for Military Munitions

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. — Carol Youkey was selected as the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers special assistant for Military Munitions. In this capacity, she will oversee all Corps of Engineers military munitions programs.

Since 1995, Youkey has worked in the Ordnance and Explosives Directorate, U.S. Army Engineering and Support Center, Huntsville. She became chief of the Military Munitions Center of Expertise in 2001.

Youkey's career with the Corps of Engineers began at Huntsville Center in 1982. She worked on several programs, including Strategic Defense, Production Base Modernization and Medical Facilities.

Youkey holds a bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering from the University of Alabama, a master's degree in Engineering Management from the University of Alabama in Huntsville, and is a registered professional engineer and land surveyor in the State of Alabama.

Even though Youkey will work for Headquarters, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Environmental Community of Practice in Washington, D.C.; she will remain in Huntsville.
